UNOPPOSED

12, 2024, but erroneously listed the deadline within the Motion to Strike as September 12, 2024.

3. Counsel for the Defendant has recognized this error and apologizes for the confusion it caused. Because the summary judgment deadline is actually August 12, 2024, the Defendant is filing this separate motion to extend the summary judgment deadline so that the Motion to Strike the Confidential Designation attached to Plaintiff's contacts can be resolved first.

4. The undersigned has consulted with counsel for the Plaintiff about this issue and the extension of the summary judgment deadlines. Counsel for Plaintiff is in agreement that the summary judgment deadline should be extended.

5. The undersigned is very mindful of this Court's instructions in her Initial Order regarding extensions and the circumstances under which they will be allowed. The undersigned respectfully requests this Honorable Court to consider this request for an extension to be timely filed and allow additional time to file dispositive motions so that the pending Motion to Strike can first be resolved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Neal D. Moore, III
